Have a say on homes

The town council is reminding residents it is important they have a say on plans to build homes in Peacehaven. The next community consultation on Lewes District Council's proposals for the homes will be held at the Meridian Centre on Monday, November 2, between 4.30pm and 7.30pm.

It will be a drop-in surgery for Peacehaven and Telscombe residents. This follows a packed public meeting held in June. Designs will be on display and residents will be able to discuss the proposals individually with district council officers and architects. The district council says affordable housing is at the heart of its vision to build about 415 homes across the whole of the district.

Seven sites across Peacehaven have been listed as possible land for building flats and houses. Controversially, some of them are car parks off the South Coast Road. The district council is looking through feedback it has already received and will post a selection of comments on its website.

You can comment on the development plans by emailing newhomes@lewes.gov.uk. For more details about the Peacehaven sites visit www.lewes.gov.uk/newhomes.

You can also write to New Homes, Lewes District Council, Southover House, Southover Road, Lewes East Sussex BN7 1AB or call 01273 471600.

Showing at the town council's cinema at the Meridian Centre on Wednesday, September 30, at 7.30pm will be Woman in Gold (12A). An elderly Jewish woman, played by Helen Mirren, fights a legal battle against the Austrian government to reclaim family paintings seized by the Nazis 60 years earlier. Tickets are £5 from the Information Office.

One great thing about being your MP is the chance to work with and support local voluntary organisations and charities.

An example of this is Danny Woolven, a 14-year-old student from Peacehaven Community School. He is planning a 16-mile sponsored "walking bus" from Seaford to Telscombe Cliffs and back on October 11 to raise money for the community transport charity CTLA.

Having previously secured continued funding from East Sussex County Council for CTLA to keep running, I was more than happy to help promote Danny's fundraising efforts.

CTLA is now fundraising for a new minibus to help provide accessible transport service for those who have difficulty using conventional public transport services. For more details or to take part in Danny's Get On Board –Walking Bus email paula@ctla.org.uk

I congratulate all the pupils in Peacehaven who have recently received A-level and GCSE results and applaud the teachers who have worked so hard with them.

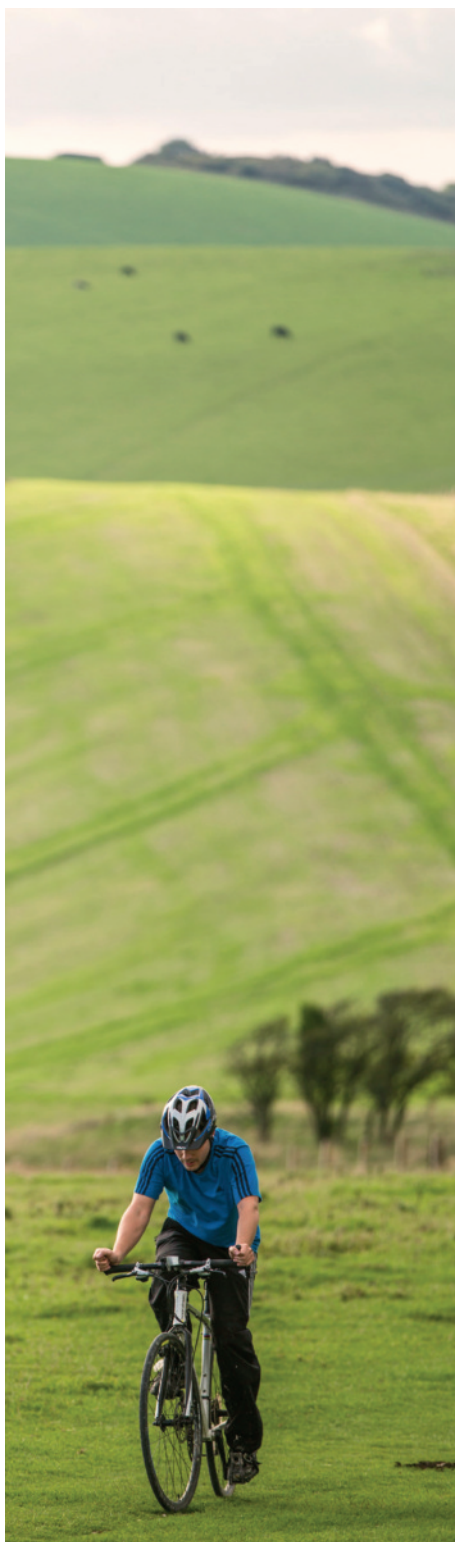

I am here to help any of my constituents. You can find out more about my work as your MP at www.simonkirby.org or www.facebook.com/kirbys.

You can also email me at simon.kirby.mp@parliament.uk or call my constituency office on 01273 589178.

Up the Downs by bike

Rides start from Centenary Park

Autumn wildlife, a visit to a local farm and tips to improve your photography skills are just some of the things you can discover on free bike rides around Peacehaven this month.

Every ride is led by a local expert and routes follow leafy country lanes, bridleways and trails to avoid as much traffic as possible.

All the rides start from Centenary Park off Piddinghoe Avenue, take between one and two and a half hours and, with easy and moderate levels, there will be something for all ages and abilities.

People without bikes can book one in advance for just £5. And for those who do, a bike doctor will be on hand before the ride to check bikes and give advice on minor repairs.

The Peacehaven Discovery Rides are part of a series of events being organised across the South Downs this autumn to encourage more people to explore the National Park by bike.

See the full programme at www.southdowns.gov.uk/discoveryrides. You can book your place by emailing cycle.training@eastsussex.gov.uk or calling 01273 482490.

Hire a room

Community House at the Meridian Centre could be just the place for your party or event. There are many rooms to hire which are ideal for wedding receptions, parties, meetings and conferences.

There is free parking with no restrictions. The venue is fully compatible for disabled requirements and all rooms are on one level.

Bingo night

Bingo will be at the Meridian Centre on Friday, September 18. Eight games for £4 plus flyer and a snowball game.

Rumble with kings of the ring

Grappling fans are getting ready to rumble again when big-time wrestling returns to the Meridian Centre in October.

Since the first event was staged in 2013, the shows in aid of the Mayor's charity fund have become established as some of the most popular attractions in Peacehaven and top promoter Premier Promotions is again planning to pull out all the stops for the Saturday night spectacular on October 24.

The programme will include tag team and solo bouts and the climax will be an all-in rumble in which the wrestlers can be eliminated only by being thrown out of the ring over the top rope. The last man standing will be the winner.

Among the stars battling it out for the king of the ring title will be international grappler "The Polish Eagle" Wolf Alexander, who has emerged as one of the superstar performers in British rings since making his debut in the Premier Wrestling Federation three years ago. Fans never quite know what to expect when the mercurial Alexander climbs into the ring but they are guaranteed a 100 per cent display and a powerful rendition of the Polish national anthem.

It will be the Eagle's first Peacehaven appearance after he was forced to pull out of his intended debut bout in February because of injury.

More international stars are being lined up to appear on the show. Among the home challengers in the frame are Meridian favourite Charlie Checkmate, one of the most popular wrestlers on the PWF books, and "Dazzling" Darrell Allen, winner of the rumble in the inaugural Peacehaven show.

Tickets for the event on October 24 are available from the Meridian Centre at £10 adults, £9 concessions or £36 a family ticket (two adults and two children). Call 01273 575125 or 01273 585493.

The evening will be sponsored by Aquarius Solutions.

Bags of bargains

To support the Macmillan Cancer Care Biggest Coffee Morning event the town council will again be organising a Bring a Bag, Buy a Bag sale.

The event will be in the foyer of Community House on Friday, September 25, from 9am.

Please bring your unwanted handbags to the Information Office ready for the sale.

Know the answers?

The next town council quiz night will be at the Meridian Centre on Friday, September 25, at 7pm. Book a table, maximum eight people, at £2 a person on 01273 585493. The evening will be sponsored by Sussex Fostering and Children's Services.

Our Royal competition

The Mayor of Peacehaven, Cllr Robert Robertson, is inviting entries for the best interpretation of Her Majesty the Queen.

On September 9, the Queen will officially become the longest-serving sovereign in British history, breaking the record held for more than a century by her great-great grandmother, Queen Victoria.

Whether your entry is a painting, drawing, clay model or abstract, the town council will try to display every entry in the foyer of Community House. The competition is open to adults and children and will be judged in those categories. Prizes will be awarded by the Mayor during October.

Collect your entry form from the Information Office at Community House and send your completed entry to Deborah Donovan, Peacehaven Town Council, Meridian Centre, Meridian Way, Peacehaven. East Sussex, BN10 8BB Email: deborahdonovan@peacehavencouncil.co.uk
