Healthy focus at the summer fair

In the Zone

This year's Peacehaven Summer Fair will feature a special Health Zone.

To improve health and wellbeing a Healthy Peacehaven partnership has been established between the town council and Sussex Community Development Association to promote healthy lifestyles and to encourage individuals, groups and organisations to get involved and to work together.

At the fair at Centenary Park on Saturday, July 16, the association will be showcasing therapists, exercise, healthy eating, community involvement, health groups, patient participation groups and more.

It hopes people will drop in to take a great opportunity to make a real difference to their lifestyles. The fair will have an associated car boot sale and the Zero Degrees skate festival.

Meet the new Mayor

Peacehaven's new Mayor, Cllr Jean Farmiloe, is inviting people to come and meet her over a cuppa at the Community Cafe at the Meridian Centre on Saturday, June 11, between 2pm and 4pm.

Cllr Farmiloe said she would like to meet as many people as possible.

"I promise to serve the town to the best of my ability and to promote Peacehaven whenever I can," she said.

Cllr Farmiloe, who has been elected for a year, will be supporting local charities and will be glad to accept invitations to visit groups and organisations or attend special celebrations. Anyone wishing to invite the Mayor should contact the town council's Civic Officer, Deborah Donovan.

Cllr Farmiloe said: "Following Cllr Robertson's excellent couple of years as Mayor I have decided to hold a further wrestling event on October 22 and to change the annual carol concert to Friday, December 2, so our schools can attend for the whole evening. The Christmas market will be held the next day."

Her civic service will be at the Evangelical Free Church on South Coast Road on Saturday, June 18, at 6pm and all residents are invited.

There will be events linked to the town's centenary year during the Mayor's term in office.

Cllr Farmiloe's first engagement as Mayor was to visit the Know Dementia Café at the Meridian Centre to support the Denim for Dementia event held during Alzheimer's Awareness Week. Town council staff also supported this event by wearing denim for a day. She said: "I hope you will support the wonderful events Peacehaven has to offer and please all come to this year's summer fair at Centenary Park in Piddinghoe Avenue on Saturday, July 16. If you would like to book a stall, please call the town council on 01273 585493."

Cllr Brian Gosling is Deputy Mayor and Cllr Jackie Harrison-Hicks is the majority political party leader.

Votes for C.A.T.S.

C.A.T.S. Club, the Peacehaven after-school club which provides extended affordable childcare, hopes to share in £250,000 being given away by Jewson in its Building Better Communities campaign. The builders' merchant is stumping up the cash to transform community buildings across the country and C.A.T.S. is on the shortlist. Now it is urging people to boost its votes by going to facebook.com/jewsonuk. Closing date is Sunday, June 19.

Regional prizes range from £500 to £10,000 worth of building materials with a top award of £150,000.

Quiz night

The next town council general knowledge quiz will be at the Meridian Centre on Friday, June 3. Book a table, maximum eight people, at £2 a person on 01273 585493.

Prize bingo

Bingo with cash prizes will be at the Meridian Centre on Friday, June 17, at 7pm. Eight games for £4 plus flyer and snowball.

Lionesses call it a day

Seahaven Lioness Club will close at the end of this month. Over the years the Lionesses — with local support — have raised more than £118,000 for charities, organisations and individuals in Peacehaven, Newhaven and Seaford as well as for Lions national and international appeals.

The decision to close follows a directive from Lions governors that all Lioness clubs should merge with Lions clubs.

Following a ballot of Seahaven members, a significant majority decided to resign if they could not continue as independent Lionesses. Therefore, the club will close and cease to be a member of Lions Clubs International.

President Pat White said: "I thank readers, past and current Lionesses and friends, and our sponsor Lions club in Peacehaven, Newhaven and Seaford for their support since we formed in 1993. We also thank neighbouring Lions clubs for their support."

Seahaven Lionesses aim to go out on a high with a final major fundraising event — their popular "posh afternoon tea" at Seaford Golf Club on Tuesday, August 16. Tickets at £8 are available from Newberry Tully in Church Street, Seaford. Proceeds will go to Newhaven and Seaford Sea Cadets.

► The Gateway Cafe at Centenary Park, designed by architects Kaner Olette, has won its most prestigious award to date. It has been named a South East regional winner in the Royal Institute of British Architects 2016 awards.

The judges said: "The café performs many roles: a gateway and interpretation centre for the South Downs National Park and a hub for schools and community and, perhaps most poignantly, a catalyst for regeneration of Peacehaven."

£10,000 and counting

The scheme to raise £35,000 so that Peacehaven & Telscombe FC can become a community football club is gaining momentum.

After the scheme's launch last month more than £10,000, nearly a third of the target amount, has been raised. The scheme needs to hit its £35,000 target by June 30 so the club can be turned into a community football club.

Clubs like these are run by members of the community and are financially supported by the community. Thriving community clubs include Lewes FC.

Prospective investors can invest as little as £100 to a maximum of £5,000 to buy shares in the club. For each £1 you invest, you will receive one share. So for the minimum £100 investment you will get 100 shares.

They're the future of football in Peacehaven

Interim board member and fundraising champion Mike Bradbury said: "I'm delighted with the way the investors are coming forward. But we need more. It's imperative we raise the necessary funds so that football can be saved and thrive in our two towns for our children and generations to come."

He continued: "This great club has been around since 1923 and has been and still is an important asset to Peacehaven & Telscombe.

"Failure is not an option, we must reach our target."

You can get involved by simply clicking on the Community Share Offer button on the home page of the football club's website.

I was delighted to attend the Seahaven Business Awards 2016 at the Jerrom Hall in Peacehaven.

I was also on the judging panel for this successful event, together with Maria Caulfield, MP for Lewes, Cllr Steve Saunders, the Mayor of Newhaven, and the presidents of the Peacehaven, Newhaven and Seaford chambers of commerce.

I have to say that the standard of the nominations was incredibly high this year. More than 500 nominations were received for 76 companies across the Seahaven area.

We are fortunate to have many excellent small businesses here in Brighton Kemptown and Peacehaven.

They are part of what makes the area so special. Whether it is a local manufacturer, builder, restaurant, tearoom or bookshop, all of these companies keep our local communities going.

They create jobs, drive growth and ensure our high streets survive and succeed.

So, congratulations to everyone who entered and to all the winners. I would also like to thank all the sponsors and I look forward to even more local businesses entering the Seahaven Business Awards in 2017.

I am here to help any of my constituents and you can find out more about my work as your MP at www.simonkirby.org.

Hiring charges held for a year

The town council has held its hire charges for a further year.

And it is urging people to make good use of its sports and event facilities at the Sports Park and Community House.

The Mayor, Cllr Jean Farmiloe, said: "We have a wide range suitable for many occasions and they all represent good value for money."

These charts show the complete range of available hirings and the costs.
